A DAY A WEEK
£2,500 · $3,000 /mo

Your tech person, about four days a month. We look after what you have and build what's next: fixes, new pages, your newsletter and posts in your voice, bookings and payments that work. Each week, a short note on what's done and what's next; each month, one page showing how it all fits together. Two days a week: £4,500 · $5,500 /mo.

Month to month. Stop with 30 days' notice and you keep every login, the code and a handover call.

Founding rate, for our first 3 organisations: £2,000 · $2,500 /mo for a day a week (normally £2,500 · $3,000) for your first 6 months, in return for a 6-month commitment and a short case study you approve first. 3 places left.

Tech check We map every tool and account you use and give you a written plan. Counted towards any project.	£400 · $500
Get going One thing fixed, fast: your site cleaned up, or one form that takes bookings and payment.	£1,200 · $1,500
Half a day a week Your tech person for the small, steady stuff: fixes, updates and one thing moved forward each week.	£1,250 · $1,500 /mo
Two days a week For bigger systems being built while the everyday keeps running.	£4,500 · $5,500 /mo

Bigger builds (sites, apps, members' areas, AI helpers) are quoted, from £3,500 · $4,500 .

We run the tech. You keep the keys.

A fixed quote in writing after a free call, showing the hours it saves and what it takes to pay for itself. Half up front, half at launch; projects of £8,000 · $10,000 and up in three parts. Quotes are valid for 30 days. After any project, Keep it running is £250 · $300 /mo: up to 4 hours of fixes and changes, hosting, and your numbers. You own every account.

Prices in pounds for the UK, in US dollars everywhere else.

Jordi, our builder, makes it and looks after it
Every account stays in your name from day one. If you ever leave, you take everything with you.

THE TWO PEOPLE DOING THE WORK. ✦

Nina looks after the brand, design and story; Jordi, with 13+ years in production software, builds it and keeps it running.

We're a neurodivergent studio, which means no surprise calls, no jargon, and a one-page summary after we talk. We take a few organisations at a time. We build with AI, so you get more done for the price, and the judgment stays with us.
